Special Thanks

We would like to thank the following people for their exceptional input into creating this wonderful evening and putting on this amazing show!

Helen Bowyer, Nikki Reardon, Nigel Penn, Claire Brown and all the Front of House staff that have kept you fed and watered, plus all Chorlton Player Chefs who made the delicious Chilli – Also a special shout to Mick Bowyer for plying us all with drink being our resident licensee.

Lise Hubble for Running back stage with help from, Rachel Morgan-Trimmer, Jaimie Laidler, Becky Day, Maxine Campbell and the rest of the back stage crew.

Annie Wallace for light and sound, with out her we would all be sat in the dark, also a mention to Lise, Becky, Jamie and Den for helping with music selections.

John Beresford for being brave enough to look through a lens at us ugly buggers and do the photography.

The Lloyds Pub for kindly donating their function room every Monday and Wednesday for rehearsals.

And possibly for the last time a massive thank you to Nikki Milbank and Euro RSCG Riley for Designing, producing and printing the fabulous posters that have served us over the past few years.

And Finally a great big lovely, throw your arms up, do the hokey cokey and turn around to all the Chorlton players that wrote for this years Hotpot, its made it the Best Ever!

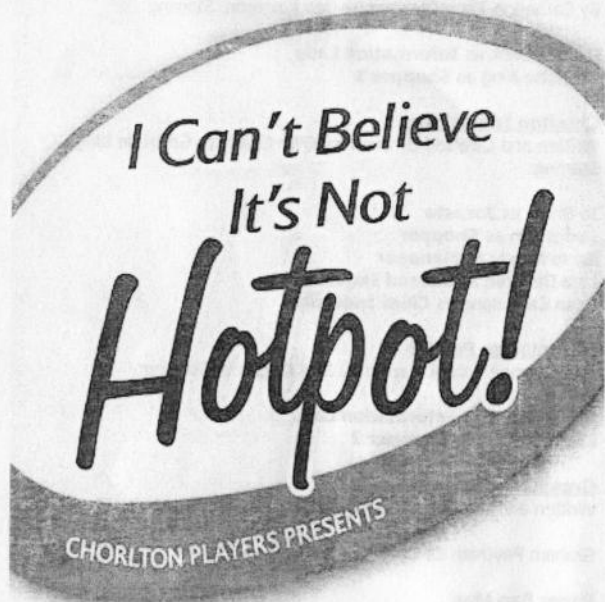

We will leave you with this to ponder... What if... the hokey cokey... is... what it's all about?

Thanks again
