About Chorlton Players...

We are a community theatre group established in 1963. We put on five productions a season, including our pantomime in the New Year and a comedy revue. Our low-ticket prices reflect the fact that we are a not for profit group. We meet and rehearse at The Spread Eagle every Monday and Wednesday evening and we always welcome new members. You don't need any experience and it is not all about the acting. We are always in need of all the other talents it takes to put on productions: backstage, costumes, front of house, set building, audio-visuals, make-up, advertising etc.

Hello and welcome to our fête!

Fête of the Nation is a celebration of our shared history and traditions – the stuff that makes us what we are:
Eccentric, well-meaning, petty, vaguely unhinged and joyfully ourselves!
The good, the bad and the absurd – it's all here.
All the sketches, films and dance routines are original material developed by the assembled players – some of whom are writing for the first time.
I am beyond proud of all the work they've put into this evening's entertainment and I hope you'll have a blast with us as we enjoy our fête together!
So, let's load up on Pimm's, grab our raffle tickets and dance!
