About Chorlton Players...

We are a community theatre group established in 1963. We put on five productions a season, including our pantomime in the New Year and a comedy revue. Our low-ticket prices reflect the fact that we are a not-for-profit group. We meet and rehearse at The Spread Eagle every Monday and Wednesday evening and we always welcome new members. You don't need any experience, and it is not all about the acting. We are always in need of all the other talents it takes to put on productions: backstage, costumes, front of house, set building, audio-visuals, make-up, advertising etc.

Hello, and welcome to the past!

It's Happy Daze! A celebration of the good times way back when everything was brilliant and nothing ever went wrong:
Do you remember various films, television shows and types of biscuit?
Sure you do! The good, the bad and the absurd – it's all here.
All the sketches, films and musical routines are original material developed by the assembled players – some of whom are writing for the very first time!
I am beyond proud of all the work they've put into this evening's entertainment, and I hope you'll have a blast with us as we relive our glory days together!
So, let's load up on push-pops, grab the Walkman and dance!
