

About Chorlton Players...

We are a non-profit making theatre group established in 1963 so we've been going fifty years now. We are a group of about forty members, and we put on five productions per season. Our two mainstays are our pantomime every New Year, and a comedy review in summer. We meet every Monday and Wednesday evening for rehearsals and are always keen to see new members. Even if you don't fancy acting, we are always in need of all the other talents it takes to put productions on: backstage, costumes, front of house, set-building, audio-visuals, make-up, advertising etc. So, if you are interested in taking any part in our shows, please get in touch.

INTRODUCTION

Hello and Welcome to our production of Red Riding Hood. Since October we've been working on our annual Panto with all the usual trimmings. It's sure to be a playful romp of song, fun and laughter, so join us as we follow Red, Dame and the gang as we take you to Nursery Rhyme Land. Just watch out for the Wolf and those naughty three little piggies on the way!

So please sit back and enjoy the show!

Director

Little Red Riding Hood, or also known as Little Red Cap or simply Red Riding Hood, is a European fairy tale about a young girl and a Big Bad Wolf. The story has been changed considerably in its history and subject to numerous modern adaptations and readings. The story was first published by Charles Perrault in 1697. The earliest known printed version was known as Le Petit Chaperon Rouge and may have had its origins in 17th-century French folklore.
